Serving More Than 10,000 Diverse Learners for Success

DMPS partnered with LSI to build capacity and prepare today's students and educators for an increasingly global economy and society. With a large refugee community and more than 100 languages spoken in the school hallways, the goal was to make rapid progress toward becoming a national model for urban education. It worked. Here's how.

I'm A Better Instructional Leader Now.

Watch LSI's Schools for Rigor initiative at work at George Washington Carver High School of the Muscogee County School District in Columbus, Georgia. Teachers and leadership are proud to see their students' confidence grow. They trust their answers and are better able to work in groups. Students now take ownership of their learning. They hold themselves accountable individually and as a group using learning targets and meeting success criteria. Jonai Senior – Asheeka Branscomb – Christopher Lindsey
