Directions for Completing the FIVES Tire

Recording FACTS: After you've collected your information, develop it into full sentences. Open with a topic sentence; tell what you are writing about. Then, begin with three facts, writing these out in complete sentences. Facts should be reported as they are sequentially introduced in the text.

Recording INFERENCES: Next, think about inferences you've made—ones connected to the recorded facts. Explain these clearly in full sentences and provide evidence for your thinking.
 $I = tc + (bk + e)$

Recording VOCABULARY: Explain the meaning of key vocabulary or terms as used in this text.

Recording EXPERIENCE: Share connections you've made with content in this text. Describe each connection concisely, but clearly. Use these to elaborate and expand your ideas, reactions, and inferences related to the text.

Recording the SUMMARY: Write a summary of key ideas, significant details, and themes for this text; use a minimum of three sentences.
